Respite in the Time of COVID-19

Lifespan Respite Network Call
March 25, 2020

Call Chat Transcript with Embedded Resource Links

Patrick Kelley- Helena, Montana: We are collecting data on our customer contact service for our AAA

Cory Lutz: What was that website again?

Lisa Schneider: https://www.powerfultoolsforcaregivers.org/

Deana Prest: www.joyforall.com - robotic pets

Lisa Schneider: https://www.airconsole.com/

Rachel Watkins-Petersen:
https://respitecarewi.talentlms.com/shared/start/key:LAeidNHR

Rachel Watkins-Petersen: ^^^ that is the link to FINDING YOUR NEW NORMAL

wapave: In your state some of these supports for families of kids can be found at their states Parent to Parents and Family to Family Health Information Centers

Rachel Watkins-Petersen: The link is also on our website, FB page and LinkedIn. Follow us! Respite Care Association of Wisconsin :)

Ellen Bennett: Eastern Nebraska is the same, not a lot of calls but reaching out to caregivers/providers

Question from Moderator: Would you be interested in meeting again next week to update each other?

Cory Lutz: I would be.
Ellen Bennett: Sure

Rachal Hatton: yes please!

Jim: yes

wapave: www.familyvoices.org and

Maria Hernandez: Yes. Thank you!

Cory Lutz: Thank you everyone for the information!!

Katy.Allen: Katy Allen, Finger Lakes Caregiver Institute at Lifespan of Greater Rochester

Christine Santy: thank you for all your info

Ellen Bennett: Thanks