

Performance Measurement Learning Collaborative

Thursday, September 30, from 10:00-11:30 Pacific (11:00-12:30 Mountain, 12:00-1:30 Central, and 1:00-2:30 Eastern).

Zoom: Meeting ID: 925 3795 3788, Passcode: 193844

Agenda

- Welcome and Introductions
- Pinpointing Outcomes and Performance Targets for Measurement, presented by Dr. Raymond S. Kirk.

Dr. Kirk, a researcher and valued colleague of ARCH staff, will present on identifying and articulating outcomes and performance targets. Ray is easing into retirement this autumn so this could be one of your last chances to learn from his years of experience in respite research and evaluation. Bring your questions and ideas to explore!

Ray will reference the following documents attached to the meeting invitation: ARCH Respite Research Report and the Performance Measurement Guide

- Finding Resources for Selecting Appropriate Measurement Tools, presented by Casandra Firman

Casandra will review and demonstrate a variety of resources for finding outcome measurement tools.

- Check in : ARCH and Learning Collaborative Participants' Updates

Where is everyone in their performance measurement activities? This is a chance to talk about what you are doing, your successes and challenges. It's a safe time to share and brainstorm with others.

- Topics for Future Meetings