

Volunteer and Faith-Based Respite Learning Collaborative

Students as Respite Volunteers: A Creative Approach to Supporting Family Caregivers

February 9, 2023

Agenda

- Welcome and Introductions
- ARCH Resources
- Today's Topic: Students as Respite Volunteers: A Creative Approach to Supporting Family Caregivers
- Q&A and member updates

New Resources

- New State Tools
- Volunteer and Faith-Based Respite Learning Collaborative Webinars
- Podcasts

Volunteer and Faith-Based Respite Learning Collaborative

ARCH Resources

Link:

lifespanrespite.wildapricot.org/resources/Documents/Volunteer_and_Faith-Based Respite LC/Volunteer and Faith-Based Respite Resources.pdf

Podcasts featuring ARCH

Innovative and Exemplary Respite Services

Conversations on Caregiving: Exploring Respite Care Innovations – Three episodes released.

- ❑ Rhode Island CareBreaks
- ❑ Claude Moore Precious Time, James Madison University, VA
- ❑ Home Away from Home Respite Center (formerly at SUNY Geneseo, NY)

Link: archrespite.org/innovative-and-exemplary-respite/arch-podcast-series

Today's Presenters

VOLUNTEER-BASED UNIVERSITY MODEL FOR RESPITE CARE

- Kim Whitmore, PhD, RN, CPN, Assistant Professor, Marquette University College of Nursing

THE BUDDY BREAK PROGRAM

- Katrina Hoff, Director, SW Idaho AHEC Program
- Sheila Weaver, Program Manager, Family Caregiver Navigator, Idaho Caregiver Alliance
- Sarah Toevs, Director, Center for the Study of Aging, Boise State University