

CHAT TRANSCRIPT

ARCH Advisory Committee to the Lifespan Respite Technical Assistance and Resource Center Meeting, January 31, 2023

Jed Johnson, CARF (he, him): Be careful there in Oklahoma - as I hear Mother Nature's wrath is taking a toll in your region.

Kathleen Kelly: You all probably already know about this study, but just in case you missed it: <https://nashp.org/state-respite-care-spending-is-low-in-most-home-and-community-based-1915c-waivers/>

Jill Kagan: Project Work Plan Summary (Year 3 Update)

https://archrespite.org/images/Advisory_Committee/Adv_Committee_2020-2025/Meeting_01-31-2023/2020-2025_ARCH_Workplan_Summary_YEAR_3_rec.pdf

Jed Johnson, CARF (he, him): Thanks to the Wisconsin team as it was a great and inspirational gathering.

Lisa Schneider, Respite Care Association of Wisconsin: Thank you!!

Nadine Walter: Well done too!

Kim Musheno, Autism Society (she/her): me too!

Connie: I am wondering if a person starts but doesn't finish listening to a podcast, does it count the same way?

Lisa Schneider, Respite Care Association of Wisconsin: Rachel is going to push out the link on our newsletter going out today

Susan Vaughn: Great to do and look forward to listening to them.

Lisa Schneider, Respite Care Association of Wisconsin: <https://www.breakexchange.org/>

Lisa Schneider, Respite Care Association of Wisconsin: Also here is a link to the International Short Break Association Conference coming up later this year in Poland <https://isba.me/>

Kim Musheno, Autism Society (she/her): That would be great!

Nadine Walter: Short blurs are very helpful!

Kathleen Kelly: Yay to website redesign!

Kathleen Kelly: CaringKind does a podcast for caregivers of adults with dementia - as an example of this type of podcast. Perhaps they can interview you Jill! <https://caringkindnyc.org/podcast/>

Connie: I am wondering if Jill or anyone has done a TED Talk on Respite Care?

Zachary Masters: I don't think one has been given explicitly on Respite Care

Connie: Thank you Jill...sorry I have to prepare for my next meeting.

Lisa Maynes, Family Voices: This is an amazing bunch of work you've shared! It is all very exciting. I have to leave also for another meeting. Thank you -

Jed Johnson, CARF (he, him): Looks like great geographic distribution of pilot sites.

Kathleen Kelly: Great work Jill and ARCH staff! Do you have time to sleep?

Mike Wittke: Great work! Excited to learn about all of this. I need to drop, talk to you later! Jill, I'll follow up on some work around the RAISE work.

Susan Vaughn: Ditto Mike, great materials and resources.

Jed Johnson, CARF (he, him): Here is link to article that appeared in CareManager - the Journal of the Academy of Certified Case Mgrs. - on adult day services as a resource for care managers. In their Oct/Nov newsletter and is eligible for Care Mgr. CEU's https://academyccm.org/pdfs/cm_oct_nov_2022.pdf

Kathleen Kelly: Here are the Innovations in Dementia Caregiving Award winners:
<https://www.caregiver.org/news/2022-winners-of-the-innovations-in-alzheimers-caregiving-awards/?via=about-fca,news-press>

Lori Stalbaum/ACL: National Technical Assistance Center for Kinship/Grandfamilies
<https://www.gksnetwork.org/>

Jaia Lent (she/her): Here is a link to the webinar and the tip sheets about grandfamilies mental health and self-care: <https://www.gu.org/resources/grandfamilies-mental-health-and-emotional-well-being-webinar/>

Jed Johnson, CARF (he, him): See you there, then!!

Jed Johnson, CARF (he, him): I was wondering about the International Conference in Poland? I'll not be able to go as I'm presenting at the Global Ageing conference in Glasgow earlier in Sept. - and couldn't spend the entire month in Europe?!

Lisa Schneider, Respite Care Association of Wisconsin: Also here is a link to the International Short Break Association Conference coming up later this year in Poland <https://isba.me/>

Jaia Lent (she/her): My apologies I have to hop off early after joining late. Thanks for this great work!

Lisa Schneider, Respite Care Association of Wisconsin: Will you be able to do demo that Nadine? Webinar or along that line - when you are ready?

Susan Summers: It is uplifting hearing from all of you about your work.