WHO ARE WE?

We are a 501(c)3
nonprofit began in 2009 in New Mexico

Family caregivers and professional caregivers

New Mexico Caregivers Coalition Today

- Developmental Disabilities Council provided seed funding to identify voice of caregiver
- Town halls or Listening Sessions held across state to hear from them about challenges and solutions
- Intentional decision that the caregiver is the organizational voice

New Mexico Caregivers Coalition Today

- Convene stakeholders: caregivers, care recipients, employers, elected officials
- We KNOW there are better ways for caregivers to work
- Test and fail, test and succeed
- Small staff so we can turn the ship
- LENS is WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

New Mexico Caregivers Coalition develops trainings that recognize the personal and professional contributions of caregivers. Then we deliver trainings to result in well-trained, knowledgeable caregivers—whether they are paid professionals or unpaid family members.

Example trainings are:

- infection prevention,
- safe transfer and mobility,
- communications skills,
- financial literacy,
- navigating Medicare,
- history of home- and community-based services and workers' rights.

Training is provided tuition-free to caregivers. Go to:

We partnered with the Federal Reserve Bank to determine online how state and federal benefits may change if a caregiver decides to continue his/her education or look for a better job.

The portal was developed by the Federal Reserve of Atlanta and assists job-seekers, HR and state policymakers by simulating educational attainment and career pathways, demonstrating what happens to public assistance benefits as a result.

The tool was developed for New Mexico Caregivers Coalition FOR New Mexicans, using state workforce and benefits data.

Students, retirees and job-seekers who want to work as respite caregivers can now take an online, self-paced program that results in a Certificate of Completion — tuition-free to the caregiver.

Developed by ARCH National Respite Network, the course builds the knowledge and skills required for becoming a New Mexico respite caregiver.

This 7-hour course focuses heavily on care for service to persons with developmental disabilities.

WHAT IS RESPITE?

Respite is a special name for a short-term break for caregivers.

Most often, this term is used for caregivers of a FAMILY MEMBER.

Caregivers of family members know the role is a 24-hour job. But caregivers ALSO need a break occasionally.

Respite care can take place:

- In-home
- At adult day-care centers
- In residential centers that offer overnight stays

Respite care can consist of a few hours, a day, a few days or a few weeks.
